THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

THE PROSPECT IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The ability of the Democratic organization in North Carolina to carry the State, in November; largely for Seymour and Blair, we have at no time doubted, since their nomination. The facts and figures are all in favor of that expectation. It only remains for our friends to work steadily, constantly, and until the election is over, to accomplish it.

The canvass, so far, has been vastly on our side. In the number and ability of our speakers, a comparison is hardly allowable. Our speakers have never been more happy or successful in swaying the judgments of their hearers than now. Never have the people been more anxious to hear, and never did they flock out in greater numbers or were they more enthusiastic. The remark is general, that, every where, the popular feeling and anxiety are in advance of the public advocates of a change in affairs.

From all parts of the State we hear the most cheering accounts of the growing unanimity of the white people in opposition to Radicalism. Our people were never Radical; they are less so than they seemed to be in the late election. Large numbers, thousands, who voted for the State Constitution, to show their anxiety for a settlement of our difficulties and to be restored to harmony with the Union, are rallying to the standard of Seymour and Blair. Carpet-bagism, scallawagism and negro equality are alike despised and ignored, by many, who, for the nonce, seemed to give them favor, and Radicalism in North Carolina is tottering to its final fall!

In the Middle and Western Counties, the evidences of change are more manifest than in the East. Indeed, the East has been almost a unit from the first, yet, even in many of the Eastern Counties, Radicalism is "growing beautifully less." As to the blacks, no extraordinary efforts are being made to induce them to abandon their idols. Many, however, are beginning to open their eyes to the ruinous policy of alienating themselves further from the white native population, upon whom they are dependent for safe counsel and substantial friendship in the time of need. Were it not for the incendiary speeches and irritating and false counsels which carpet baggers and scalawags give them, and the serious injury to their morals and pecuniary interests produced by the teachings of the Radicals, the Conservatives would be content to leave them entirely to the silent workings and teachings of their own minds. We would be glad if they would go with us. We would prefer they would think as we think. They know who are their friends in the last resort. It is not too late for them to secure that lasting friendship. Many of them, here and there, are abandoning their false teachers. Yet we do not conceal the conviction that the great bulk of them will still hug to their bosoms the fancies of the hour and jeopard their real and more substantial interests. Let them make their own election. We will neither deceive them with false pledges nor delude them with vain hopes.

From the Counties west of Raleigh, the indications of change in favor of correct principles and action are very manifest. A leading Democrat in the Mountain District, conversant with the state of public feeling in that region, assures us of an immense reaction in that section. The West will do its duty, we are assured, this time. If so, the State is safe. Yet, as we have before said, let us not rely too much upon the enthusiasm and furor of mass meetings. Let the Clubs be at work and keep at it. Let them WATCH THE REGISTRATION and the POLLS, and let each talk with his neighbor. The Republic is in danger.

WHO PUT the tax of four hundred dollars on the distiller, who wishes to make a few gallons of brandy from his orchard, for his own use? THE RADICAL CONGRESS!

A REMARKABLE CORRESPONDENCE.

We have seldom been more surprised, than we were at the correspondence published in the Standard, of yesterday, between "Gov." Holden and Gen. Miles, U. S. Military Commander of this District. So far as our information extends, there is no other foundation for the uneasiness manifested by them than idle and baseless rumor, and there is really no more fitness in the publication of such a correspondence, when applied to the present status of affairs and to present facts, in North Carolina, than the publication, in the same paper, of the proclamation of Gov. Vance, issued in 1863, has to the present time. Both papers are published by the Standard and by the "Governor," for the same reason, as an electioneering trick, and as a manufactured plea for bringing out the detailed armed police to intimidate voters AND EXCITE RIOT AND BLOODSHED!

We think it safe to presume that, if there were any secret Democratic organization in North Carolina, who design or desire to take up arms against the National or State governments, or in any wise to promote disorder, the Editors of the Sentinel would know it. Being sure that no such idea or organization exists, we DENY palpably the charges impliedly made by "Gov." Holden and Gen. Miles against the Democratic and Conservative organizations in this State, and we defy either of them to prove it, or give a plausible reason, substantiated by respectable evidence, to render such a supposition even probable. The whole thing is a blind,—a political trick, to justify the extraordinary and violent measures which "Gov." Holden and his friends desire to inaugurate in the State, to intimidate voters. In the opinion of those, who have long read the productions of Gov. Holden, there is such a striking resemblance in the style and matter of Gen. Miles' letter to the style of "Gov." Holden, that it is believed he is the author of both letters, though Gen. Miles, of course, is responsible for the matter it contains. He is a quiet, prudent man in his department, and, we take it for granted, is disposed to confine him to strictly within the limits of his official duty, but why does he consent to the publication of an official letter on the very day that it is written, and before he receives any reply from his superior, Gen. Meade, and before such careful investigations, known to the public, have been had, to ascertain fully the facts? Does he not subject himself to the suspicion, at least, that he is too willing to array his official position and its influence against the Democratic party in North Carolina, whose sole aim is peace, and who, we are confident, have no other aims, but the maintenance of the Constitution and the laws and the preservation of quiet and good order? If there are individual exceptions to this assertion among Democrats and Conservatives, of which we have no evidence whatever, let these individuals alone be the objects of surveillance and censure, and not excite and encourage unfounded suspicion against a whole party, composed of the very best people in the State.

We repeat, so far as we have evidence, there is no ground of suspicion, that any Democratic organization in North Carolina has the smallest idea or desire of a conflict of arms with any one, and we deny, palpably, that there is any such organization, in North Carolina, hostile to the Constitution or government of the United States, or that the idea has ever been entertained, or ever will be, of armed opposition to the United States Government or to the Government of the State. Their purpose is to effect all desirable changes by Constitutional and lawful means alone. Our space forbids further notice to day, but we ask the attention of our readers to this most extraordinary correspondence, in another column.

WAR AND TREASON.

We learn that Holden has ordered out detailed Militia in Robeson. There is no necessity for this, and it has been done against the remonstrances of the best men in the county, of both parties, including, we have been informed, a large majority of Holden's own magistrates! This detailed militia will doutless be armed with some of the arms reported to have been furnished by Northern Governors and associations, just as they were sent to Jno. Brown and "bleeding Kansas."

The evidence multiplies that there is an armed conspiracy going on to resist the election of Seymour and Blair and to prevent a return to the paths of the CONSTITUTION!

AN HONEST CONFESSION!

Greeley is becoming alarmed at the indications of the times. Notwithstanding their idle boastings, nothing has frightened him, and the Radicals generally, more than the result in Maine. The official vote is still withheld, but Greeley evidently knows how it is, and that the Democracy have made large gains on the former elections in that State. Here is what Greeley says, and his candid confession is full of encouragement, in view of the approaching elections in the great States:

"If our vote should fall off like that of Maine—eight per cent of the total vote of 1866—we would lose New York by 43,718 majority. We, therefore, must do six per cent. better than Maine, compared with 1866, or we lose the State."

A similar per centage of gain will give us Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana by overwhelming majorities.

STILL THEY COME!—Thirty-six citizens of Yancey county, through the Rutherford Vindicator, announce their withdrawal from the "Union League," and their determination to vote for Seymour, Blair and Durham!

THE CAMILLA RIOT.—It was stated last week that Gen. Sibley had sent his report of the Camilla affair to Gen. Howard, which the latter would not publish. Radical correspondents replied that Gen. Sibley had not completed his report. The notion now is that the report was sent, but not being exactly to the taste of the Bureau, it was returned to Gen. S. to be completed, i. e., to altered as to subserve Radical politics.

Public Sentiment Among Representative Men!

TRUTH APPEALS TO PATRIOTS!

We compile from letters of prominent gentlemen, North and South, addressed to the Democracy of New York, on occasion of the recent great Mass Meeting, showing the oneness of sentiment as to the peril of the Republic.

Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy, writes:

"When the Republican party was organized, in 1856, to assert and maintain popular sovereignty, or the right of the people to form their own State Constitution and, in conformity with the Federal Constitution, decide for themselves in regard to their local government, without dictation or interference from the central Government, or from border ruffians, I did not hesitate to act with that organization.

Efforts had been made to impose a Constitution upon the people of Kansas without their consent and against their will.—They resisted the efforts to invade their rights, and they had my sympathy and support in that resistance.

But the Radical element of the Republican party which, for the last three years, has had control of that organization, unmindful of the professions of regard for popular rights and State rights, and of its avowed opposition to Federal aggression, has been engaged in greater outrages upon popular rights, and in a more arbitrary and despotic exercise of Federal power, than was ever attempted by "border ruffians," or those who have abused the authority of the General Government at any former period.

A party so false to its professions, and to the principles which led to its organization, is not deserving of public confidence. I shall rejoice in its defeat, and in the triumph of those who are striving for a restoration of the Union, and a restoration of the States to their legitimate Constitutions and constitutional rights."

Gov. Wall, of New Jersey, writes:

"The struggle before us is one of tremendous import. In the result I believe is involved the future safety and integrity of this Government. A Radical triumph in November will be looked upon as an endorsement of all the past usurpations of the party that has so long swayed the destinies of the republic, and fresh and more startling usurpations will follow. It is folly for this Radical party to attempt to make others responsible for the evils consequent upon the maladministration of public affairs. It alone possessed all the power, and it alone must bear all the responsibility. The people now call this great party to judgment. Let it answer for its many offences before that august tribunal. Let it excuse, if it can, or deny, if it dare, its crimes against the Constitution, Union and Liberty. The sentence of the people, whose fair decision it is attempting to prevent, will, I doubt not, be exclusion from the positions it has dishonored and the power it has used as a tyrant, and not as a public servant."

Hon. Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia, says strongly and timely:

"Let us have peace; but we can only get peace—a lasting, real, substantial peace—by returning to the Constitution, to its principles, its letter, and its spirit; to the motives of those who went to fight for the Union, the Constitution, and the Laws, to keep the States together in the Union, under the Constitution, with all their rights and powers unimpaired. That is a peace which "passeth the understanding" of the Radicals, for it is a peace without swords, bonds, greenbacks, taxes, bayonets, negroes, despotism, usurpation and repudiation. It is a Democratic peace which restores the ballot, gold and silver, economy, the supremacy of the white race, the Union and the Constitution—a peace in which the Radical and the negro die of collapse."

Hon. J. Hardenburgh, of New York says:

"The canvass with which the people are now occupied, though of transcendant importance to the country for the present and the future, is conducted by our adversaries in a spirit of unfairness seldom before witnessed in our history. They shrink from and evade a manly discussion of the great issues involved in the contest. Upon the subject of reconstruction they have forsaken the policy of the Lincoln administration, to which their whole party was committed as late as 1866 and which was fully indorsed by General Grant, and have adopted a revolutionary plan of suddenly bringing a degraded and semi-barbarous population into the elective constituency, to the exclusion of the intelligent white men, and employing Congressional usurpation and armed force in taking from the respective States—where the Constitution places and the common safety requires it to remain—the control of the question of suffrage."

Hon. John Love, of Indiana, writes:

"In a mighty contest like that in which the American people are to-day engaged—in a struggle and combat in which constitutional government, protective of popular liberty, is fated to be lost or won upon the decision of the people at the ballot-box in November, the Democracy of the great West are no idle or indifferent spectators. Appreciating the importance of the issues involved, and their bearings upon the prosperity and welfare of the toiling, laboring masses, we earnestly sympathize with the work of regeneration and reform wherever and however it is being achieved.

The Radical tenet that there is no imposition too monstrous for the popular credulity, their destitution of faith in the capacity of the people for self-government, and their contempt for the solemn obligation and guarantees of our Constitution and laws, have become to them a pit-fall and a snare, into which they will be plunged headlong into destruction.

The people love that which no good man ever yet gave up but with his life—personal liberty."

Gov. B. F. Perry, of South Carolina, writes:

"But although it is impossible for me to be with you in person, my heart and my soul will unite with you in all your efforts to elevate to the Presidency your distinguished statesman, Horatio Seymour. I believe that the salvation of the country, and the existence of our republican form of Government depend on his election. If the Radicals should carry the election I have no idea that the American people will ever have an opportunity of electing a Constitutional President of the United States.

I am justified in this conclusion by the usurpations, oppressions, tyranny and extravagance of the Radical party in Congress. They have already, in utter disregard of the Federal Constitution, stripped the President of his highest and most legitimate prerogatives and conferred them on the Commanding General of the Army—their candidate for the Presidency. They have denied the President the power of selecting his own Cabinet, or dismissing from office those who have proved recreant and betrayed their trusts. They have encroached on the Judiciary Department of the Government, and refused to let the Supreme Court of the United States decide on the constitutionality of their legislation. They have struck down, at one blow, ten sovereign States of this Union, and hold them under military despotism. They have disfranchised the white race in the Southern States and enfranchised the negroes.

I feel assured that if the Northern people could only see, or be made sensible of, the miserable condition of their fellow-citizens and kinsmen of the South, they would not sustain a party in power who had brought this great calamity of negro supremacy on one-third of the Republic. In the Legislature of South Carolina there are eighty negroes and only forty white members in the House of Representatives. The greater part of these forty white legislators are the lowest and worst of men, without property, intelligence or character, and were elected by the negroes. Their legislation has been wild, extravagant and atrocious. Paying no taxes themselves, and their constituency, by whom they were elected, paying nothing into the State Treasury, they have made appropriations and levied taxes which will bankrupt the State.

But their legislation in other respects is still worse and more alarming. They have authorized the suspension of that bulwark of Anglo Saxon liberty, the writ of Habeas Corpus, and have authorized the raising of a standing force of negro troops, in violation of the Constitution of the United States, which forbids a State keeping a standing army. Under these laws this negro government will have the power of imprisoning any citizen without warrant or accusation as long as they please, whilst a negro force will be left to insult and outrage his family and plunder and destroy his property.

In the meantime the State will be, as the whole South must be, utterly impoverished and desolated. Instead of being an advantage to the North, as the Southern States formerly were, they will be an expense—an incubus on their industry, energy, and enterprise. We are paying little or nothing towards the support of the Federal Government, and we are unable to pay as long as this negro rule continues. We are without capital to cultivate our lands, and capital will not come here for investment while this negro government continues. There is no security for life or property. The newspapers are filled with houses and barns burnt, property stolen and persons murdered.

In time of peace we see all over the South Federal troops, kept up at an enormous expense, to keep the white race in subjugation to negro government—a government which, if continued, will make the whole South a Hayti or San Domingo. We have, too, a Freedmen's Bureau throughout the Southern States, whose sole purpose is to prejudice the freedmen against their former masters, and unite them to the Radical party. This Bureau is paid for by the North, and costs the government ten or fifteen millions annually. Why should the white people of the Northern States pay enormous and crushing taxes to establish negro governments over their own race throughout the South? Why should they keep up a standing army here, for the purpose of maintaining those governments?

The only purpose which the Radical party have in creating and continuing this unnatural Despotism is to perpetuate their own progress as a party. In order to maintain their ill-gotten authority, and keep control of the government, they are willing to make one-third of the republic an Ireland or a Poland. Peace there never can be at the South, while negro supremacy is maintained here by Federal bayonets. It is impossible that a brave, intelligent, and patriotic people can willingly submit to such degradation and tyranny. It is not human nature to do so.

As an old Union man I can say with truth that the Southern people accepted in good faith the results of the war, and would have been as loyal to the Federal Government as New York or Massachusetts, if they had been restored to the Union under the Constitution. They abolished slavery and were determined to give their former slaves equal protection with themselves in the enjoyment of all their civil rights. When the freedmen showed themselves capable of exercising political rights, they were willing to confer them also. But at present they know, and the negro knows, that he is incapable of exercising prudently and wisely the political rights of a citizen. Hence the carpet-baggers who have come here from the North to take charge of the negroes and assume the government of the country.—The freedmen are now as much political slaves to these carpet-baggers as they formerly were domestic slaves of their former owners.

Instead of meeting fairly the issues involved in this Presidential canvass, and defending their usurpation, tyranny and prodigal extravagance, the Radical party are trying to make the election turn on the past issues of the war. In order to do this they appeal to the prejudices of the North against the rebels of the South. At the same time they are receiving into full fellowship and hugging to their bosom the meanest and vilest of those rebels who have joined their party. In a recent act of this Radical Congress they removed the disabilities of ten or fifteen hundred "red-handed rebels," and declared them worthy of holding office because they had joined the Radical party. Such men as Governor Holden, of North Carolina, and Governor Brown, of Georgia, who were at the beginning of the war the fiercest and most uncompromising secessionists, have been made loyal citizens, whilst Governor Worth, of North Carolina, Governor Jenkins, of Georgia, and myself, who were always Union men, are repudiated because we will not give in our adhesion to the Radical party. He who betrays his race, his country, his principles, and his God, is worthy of office in the Radical party, and no longer "a red handed rebel."

THE SUMAC TRADE.

This trade has been carried on quite extensively at Fredericksburg, Va. Mrs. E. G. Branson, who resides at Fredericksburg, has sent us the following particulars, in answer to our inquiries:

Messrs. Editors:—I see in your paper an editorial concerning Sumac, in which you desire additional information. As the article is quite a source of revenue to the citizens of Fredericksburg, Va., where I reside, I give you a few items for the benefit of your readers.

It is gathered in large quantities by the citizens, dried in the shade for about two days, and sold to the dealers at 2½ cents per pound. The dealers have it ground in ordinary mills to about the consistency of corn meal, packed in barrels and shipped to Baltimore, where they realize as much as 25 cents per pound. It is gathered from the 1st of July until frost. The leaves, and the stem on which the leaves grow, are all that they gather. Care is taken never to let it get wet, it being rendered then unsaleable and worthless. Single hands make as much as $6 or $7 per day. It grows in great abundance; it is easily and quickly gathered, and sells readily for remunerative prices; hence the trade in it has done much to build up Fredericksburg since the war.

For any particulars not here given, I beg leave to refer your readers to the firm of Thomas F. Knox & Sons, of that city, who are large dealers in the article."

SELF-GOVERNMENT.—Of seven Governors in as many "reconstructed" Southern States, only two have resided South more than three years. Of ten U. S. Senators elected in five Southern States, eight are recent immigrants. Of thirty three Representatives elect to Congress from seven Southern States, twenty-two are recent immigrants. Rich. Whig.

Valuable Farm for Sale.

I OFFER FOR SALE that well known and desirable Farm, formerly owned by R. W. Edmundson, near Stantonsburg, Wilson County, N. C. It is situated on the County Road leading from Goldsboro' to Tarboro. The Tract contains of which 365 are cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. Plenty of MARL, easy of access. A good variety of Fruits and Vineyards, good Water, a healthy locality and intelligent and refined society. Dwelling House with 8 commodious rooms, nearly new. All out-houses necessary on a Farm.

This Farm is adapted to the growth of COTTON, CORN, VEGETABLES, and everything else usually grown in this section. It is located 7 miles from the W. & W. R. R., and is certainly one of the most beautiful situations in Eastern Carolina. I deem further description unnecessary, as no one would purchase without looking for himself. Come and see growing crop, without fertilizers or compost.

TERMS:—$2,000 cash, (currency,) and 100 bales of Cotton, (425 lbs. per bale,) payable in three annual instalments, with interest computed on Cotton at 15 cts. per lb. I have no hesitation in saying that I believe 100 acres in Cotton will pay the entire Cotton in two years. It is a rare chance for a good investment. Such property is seldom put in market. I am not confined exclusively to the above terms. The subscriber or Mr. Edmundson will take pleasure in showing the property to those wishing to purchase.

"THE MESSENGER."—We have the first number of this Daily, just started in Goldsboro, under the Editorial auspices of Wm. A. Hearne and Swift Galloway, Esqs. It is a combination of the former North Carolinian and the Rough Notes. The new paper will prove a spirited and live journal. Its Editors are gentlemen of energy and ability, and will handle the issues and men of the day trenchantly and fearlessly.

"THE BEST IN THE SHOP!"—We learn that "Judge" Watts, now holding the Fall Term of Wake Superior Court, either in charging the Jury, or in announcing a decision to Counsel on some legal point raised, on Thursday, remarked that the "Court would endeavor to do impartial justice, and would always give the best it had in the shop!" Shades of the Past!

MAJ. J. A. ENGELHARD.—We cheerfully give place to the communication of Col. E D. Hall, in another column, in vindication of Maj Engelhard, of the Wilmington Journal, from the malignant reflections of certain Radical papers. Maj. E. was a brave soldier of the Confederacy, and, even during the short time when he was in the Q M. Department and not required to go into action, was always at the front and the post of danger. He did his whole duty gallantly, and really needs no defence, but we can but admire the chivalrous generosity which has prompted Col. Hall to vindicate the reputation of a friend and comrade.

THE FIFTH DISTRICT.—It is said that neither Henderson nor Tourgee will submit to the imperial dictation of the Radical Executive Committee, with Holden and Jim Harris at its head, ruling them off the Congressional track in the Fifth District. The Greensboro Times says that Badham, the candidate for Elector, is perfectly indignant at the course pursued by the Committee,—claiming that it has no right to disregard the expressed sentiments of a "legal Convention!"

"JUDGE" Cantwell made a Radical speech to the negroes in Wilmington, on Wednesday night. The Star says that he traced the history of the world from the Garden of Eden to the banks of Tar River, and that it was difficult to tell whether the "Judge's" effort was a historical narrative, a literary address or a lecture on Commerce and Manufactures!

HON. JNO. BAXTER.—We are gratified to see that this distinguished gentleman, who has had an experience of Radicalism, in all its deformity, in Tennessee, is announced to address the people of his old District at several points. His influence and efforts will be potent. Gen. Clingman and himself will speak at Columbus, Polk Co., on the 28th., and at Rutherfordton on the 30th.

MASS MEETING AT CLAYTON.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, about eight hundred people were assembled at Clayton, Johnston Co., on Thursday.—Hon. Sion H. Rogers made one of his ablest and most impressive efforts, and effective speeches were also made by E. S. Parker and W. H. Avera, Esquires. Stephen Rand, colored, also made some sensible remarks, which were well received. A bountiful Barbecue was provided, and everything passed off enthusiastically. Johnston is all right!

WE REGRET to learn that Dr. Wm. Holt, of Lexington, died last Saturday. The Dr. was a useful man and much esteemed.

THE CANVASS NORTH AND WEST.

If we can judge from the tone of our exchanges, the canvass in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana is becoming exceedingly vigorous, if not violent. Men and money to push on the canvass of both parties are put into requisition without stint. The canvass is developing a larger amount of ability and power in public discussion, than we supposed could be easily commanded.

We presume that the three States just named have never been better canvassed.—We do not recollect ever to have known such immense gatherings of the people as have been drawn together, within the last month, in those three States. The leading speakers and newspapers on both sides hold out strong encouragement to their parties to expect a victory. The results of the elections in those States on the 13th. inst., (Tuesday next,) will indicate very probably the result of the national contest.

We do not desire, by any means, to create wrong or false expectations. Disappointments are much easier borne, when anticipations have not been too extravagant. We know the most intense anxiety as to the result pervades the whole country, and no where more than among the down trodden, dispirited people of the South. But, to our mind, the indications are decidedly favorable to the carrying of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana by the Democracy. We do not antipate such large gains as are claimed by some of our friends, but such as will, very clearly, indicate the triumph of Seymour and Blair in November. Those staid conservative journals, the National Intelligencer and the New York World, are seldom sanguine without well founded reasons. The general tenor of their correspondence certainly indicates success, and as we are persuaded their object is not to mislead, we shall look for favorable results.

Whatever may be the tenor of the returns, however, nothing should dampen our zeal or weaken our efforts for success in November. Next to the success of Seymour and Blair in the general result, is the question of success in North Carolina. WE MUST CARRY THIS STATE, whatever may be the general result. Our confidence in the triumph of our principles shall not waver, so well assured are we of their soundness, their truth, and their wisdom, until we know that we are beaten.

THE GREAT MASS MEETING AT SALISBURY.—We learn, by passengers on yesterday's train, that the Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Salisbury, on Thursday, was a magnificent success. An immense concourse of persons of both sexes, was present, and the enthusiasm has never been exceeded. Among the Speakers was the Hon. John Quincy Adams, the Democratic candidate for Governor in Massachusetts, who, en route for Georgia, consented to remain over and address the people.

We hope that some friend will promptly furnish us an account of this great meeting, as well as of the one at Lexington, on the 6th.

For the Sentinel.

Major J. A. Engelhard—A Merited Tribute.

Messrs. Editors:—I have frequently noticed that some of the Radical newspapers published in this State—the N. C. Standard and Wilmington Post—are trying to injure the good name and fair fame of Maj. Gen. A. Engelhard, Editor of the Wilmington Journal, by insinuating that, during the late war, he could only be found in bomb-proof situations. Knowing the charge or insinuation to be utterly false,—without the shadow of foundation in fact,—and seeing that Maj. Engelhard treats the authors of this base slander with silent contempt; that he will not descend so low as to notice what these sheets say about him; and as the Wilmington Journal is one of the leading Democratic newspapers of the South, I desire that the public may know the character of the gentleman who edits it, in order that they may not be deceived by what these Radical papers say about him, and, therefore, address to you this communication.

At the beginning of the war, Major Engelhard joined Capt. J. L. Bridgers' Company from Edgecombe county, as a private; from which he was promoted by Colonel, afterwards General, Branch, first as Captain, and then as Major in the Quartermaster's Department, and acted as such on the staff of Gen B., in the battles around Richmond, being on the field with him, in every action, and at Sharpsburg received in his arms the dying North Carolina hero. He then resigned his Majority and accepted a Captaincy, and acted as A. A. G. on Gen. Pender's staff, and was his right hand man in all those bloody engagements in which Gen. Pender won his imperishable renown; and was severely wounded at Chancellorsville. After Gen. Pender's death, he acted as A. A. G. on Gen. Wilcox's staff, and, at Reams' Station, was again wounded. He remained on Wilcox's staff until the final surrender. He never missed a battle or skirmish, and in every one of them no man was more exposed to danger than he.

The larger portion of this war record of Major Engelhard, as above, I am personally familiar with; and the balance I vouch for as being true. I am not one of those who can stand by and see a brave man, who was my comrade in arms, slandered by carpet baggers, without raising my voice in his defence,

E. D. HALL.

RADICALISM AND ITS DOINGS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

YANCEYVILLE, CASWELL CO., October 6, 1868.

Judge Tourgee discharged all the juries to-day because the sheriff had not summoned a part colored. The sheriff, in justification of himself, informed the Judge that he could not find any colored men who had paid their taxes. Notwithstanding which the Judge adjourned the court and gracefully yielded the court house to a negro from Fayetteville, who entertained a house full of negroes and scallawags for upwards of two hours.

Many of the farmers are determined to stop farming another year, and will only make small crops of corn and wheat, having lost money for the last two years raising tobacco.

CHEERING NEWS FROM OHIO.—We are informed by a gentleman who was an active canvasser for the Democratic ticket in Ohio in 1867, as well as in 1863, that the Democratic prospects, so far as visible signs are concerned, are better now than they were last year. The number of Republicans who attend our meetings is greater, and they give evident marks of approval and approbation.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Correspondence.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, Oct. 7, 1868.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles, Commanding, &c.:

SIR:—I have information that arms have been imported into this State, and distributed among members of a certain political organization. These arms are not of the ordinary character for sporting or hunting purposes, but repeating rifles, such as are used in war.

I have official information that a box of Enfield rifles has been found secreted in Newbern. I have learned also that boxes of arms have been shipped to Charlotte, and to points west of that place.

I have also learned that arms have been received and distributed in and around Wilmington. It is known that arms are in the hands of persons in that city and the surrounding country, of a character to leave the impression that they are to be used for purposes hostile to the Government and to the peace of society.

I have deemed it my duty to inform you of these facts, and to request you so to distribute the troops under your command as to afford the greatest aid practicable to the civil authorities in maintaining the peace. I trust that troops will be at once sent to Wilmington, and to other points in the State. It is my fixed purpose to maintain the peace and to protect and maintain the State Government by all the means I can command. The people were surprised and hurried into war in 1861, against their will. The authorities owe it to the people, to the Government, to themselves, to see to it that similar steps are not allowed to be taken now. The great body of our people are averse to violence and war,—They want peace. They must have it. Those who may engage in war, or who may resort to violence to gain political ends, or to take vengeance on any portion of their fellow-citizens, will be held to strict account and severely punished.

In the event of a conflict the civil authorities, having first exhausted their power to preserve the peace, will call at once on the Federal military; and I have written this to notify you in advance of my purpose in this respect. I feel sure of your aid in any emergency to the extent to which it can be given under the orders you have received.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your obedient Servant,
W. W. HOLDEN.

HEADQ'RS DISTRICT OF N. CAROLINA, RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 9th, 1868.

Governor W. W. Holden:

SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 7th inst., requesting that troops may be sent to Wilmington, N. C., and stating that you have official information that a lot of Enfield rifles has been found secreted in Newbern, also that you have reason to believe that arms have been sent to Charlotte, N. C., and several other points, &c. I have forwarded your letter to Gen. Meade for his information.

I have received reliable reports, legally substantiated, that several hundreds of Henry and Spencer rifles (many of them sixteen shooters) with accoutrements, &c., complete, have been received at Wilmington and thence distributed to organizations in this State, styling themselves "Seymour and Blair" Clubs, and "K. K. K's." From other points officers report similar movements, the object of which has as yet not been made public. These facts have also been reported to the Department Commander and I have no doubt he will take proper action in the matter. While, therefore, these occurrences give rise to questions which may possibly produce serious results, still, action in the first instance should be taken by the civil authorities, which, in my opinion, can be done, under the Act of the General Assembly of this State, ratified August 24th, 1868, forbidding the conspiring of persons, by force or otherwise, to prevent the execution of the laws of the State, and making it a high crime to engage in rebellion or insurrection against the authority thereof.

The Constitutional right of all citizens to the possession of arms for proper purposes, does not extend to the perfecting of organizations, armed with weapons of a purely military character, such as those reported as having been received in such unusual quantities at Wilmington and other points; otherwise batteries and regiments may be formed with equal propriety, inimical to the government, while it calmly awaits the fate intended by those, who, in 1860, pursued a similar course. It will undoubtedly be claimed by these parties that their motives are perfectly good and as indicating no intention to forcibly resist the law or otherwise interfere with the peace and quiet of their respective localities. This cannot be granted. In 1861, professions of intense loyalty to the Constitution and laws went hand in hand with concealed preparations for war. Many of these men are paroled prisoners who have sworn to obey the laws in force where they reside and not to bear arms against the government, &c. This State has been reorganized under acts of Congress, the sequence of the rebellion, and any attempt to disturb its laws and prevent the re-establishing of its authority is, in my opinion, an act of hostility and a violation of their solemn obligations, which may justly excite action on the part of the general government. Their rights in asserting and maintaining political preferences cannot be questioned, but when pushed to the present extremity, assuming hostile positions towards the government, prompt condemnation on the part of all good citizens should follow.

This "apparent purpose and readiness" to appeal to arms, after the experience of the past seven years, is inexplicable. It is strange that many of the citizens of this State should so far forget their interest as to court another collision which cannot but be more disastrous than that recently ended. There is nothing in the present political contest to excite apprehensions on the part of any class or party. Two elections have quietly occurred here within the past twelve months as important as any that have taken place in the history of North Carolina, and with a degree of good order creditable to all concerned, and any attempts to excite disturbances by any parties, under any pretence whatsoever, are alike foolhardy and criminal. It probably requires no discussion to prove the entire futility of attempting any resistance of the Government in its efforts to perfect and complete the questions arising from the late war. Its whole power is guaranteed for the maintenance of the laws as at present constituted, and, until legally changed, they should and must be respected.

Very respectfully,
Your obt. servt.,
NELSON A. MILES,
Byt. Maj. Gen., U. S. A., Comd'g. Dist.

Parson Brownlow once declared in a public speech that "he would rather go to hell with a loyal negro than to heaven with a Copperhead," and Carl Schurz has publicly announced it as his opinion that "God is an imaginary being, the Bible only fit to amuse children, and the Christian Sabbath only a relic of barbarism." What other than a Jacobin party ever acknowledged such impious blasphemers for leaders!

[Reported for the Sentinel.]

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

THE MEBANESVILLE BARBECUE!

TWO THOUSAND PERSONS PRESENT!!

MEBANESVILLE, Oct. 8, 1868.

Notwithstanding it was raining, at an early hour, this morning, the people of the surrounding country commenced pouring into our village.

Extensive preparations had been made for the occasion. A beautiful stand for the speakers and musicians had been built and decorated with wreaths and flowers, and upwards of 400 feet of tables had been constructed.

Hon. Giles Mebane had come to his old home, and, also, the place that had been the home of his father, James Mebane, his grand father, Alexander Mebane, whose name was celebrated in the first war of Independence, and the home of his great grandfather, who, more than one hundred years ago, left Ireland and came and settled in this neighborhood—had come to raise his voice once more for his country. He made the opening speech, and, being surrounded by his old neighbors, friends and his former servants, he made a speech which stirred every heart. His remarks to the negroes were very appropriate and had a good effect.

Colonel Bingham then made a clear and forcible speech, which was like every effort he makes, plain, forcible and to the point. While Col. B. has been long noted for his success as a teacher and a writer of school books, it is only of late that he has been attracting attention as one of our able speakers.

After Col. Bingham had finished speaking, the vast crowd repaired to the tables. 2,500 lbs. of the choicest beef, pork, mutton and hams had been well cooked, under the management of Col. Steele, who is perhaps one of the best managers of Barbecues in N. C. The tables were also spread with cakes, pies, and everything good.

Dinner finished, J. W. Graham, Esq., made one of his best speeches.

H. K. Nash then made one of the most eloquent efforts I ever heard. It was truly said, a few days ago, by a distinguished speaker, that H. K. Nash is one of the best stump speakers of the State. He held the audience spell bound for about one hour.—As he pictured the surroundings of our soldiers—the degradation to which we have been subjected—the evils which Radical rule had brought upon us—the fall of the Judiciary from its high position—and then the insults which had been offered the women, the whole audience was swayed by his powerful eloquence. The theme—the large crowd of intelligent men, with 500 of the fair daughters of Alamance and Orange—together with the responsibility which every one feels resting upon him—caused Mr. Nash to make one of the best efforts of his life, and could every freeman in North Carolina hear that speech, uttered in the manner in which it was spoken to day, there could be but little of Radicalism left in North Carolina.

The last speech was by Hon. Jo. Turner, and was just such as no other man can make. It was a good effort, worthy of the man. Mr. Turner's whole soul is in the contest, and when he speaks there must be good done to our cause.

At the close of Mr. Turner's speech, the people dispersed to their homes—all stirred up to work more earnestly in our great and glorious cause.

I will add that there are but few scalawags in that part of Alamance county, lying East of Haw River. Out of 600 white votes, there are not thirty who will not vote for Seymour and Blair. ALAMANCE.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA—AN IMMENSE DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

BEDFORD, Oct. 9, M.

An immense Democratic Mass-Meeting was held here yesterday. One hundred and fifty crowded wagons and carriages, and many mounted men, encircled the entire town. It was the largest meeting ever held in Bedford.

SPECULATIONS AS TO PENNSYLVANIA—CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, M.

Much interest in the Pennsylvania election is felt. The Democratic canvassers claim the State by fifteen thousand. The Radical canvassers claim it is by ten thousand.

Chief Justice Chase authorizes the contradictors of the statement that he has declared for Grant and Colfax.

GEN. M'CLELLAN.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9, M.

The ovation, to-day, was very grand. McClellan's speech contained no political allusions.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR.

BOSTON, Oct. 9, M.

Geo. L. Richardson, of the firm of Page & Richardson, while temporarily insane, cut the throats of his two children. One, aged thirteen, is dead; the other may recover. Richardson has disappeared. He is much esteemed and bore an excellent character.

CAMILLA RIOT—DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN DELAWARE.—JUDGE CHASE.

WASHINGTON, Oct 9, P. M.

Captain Mill's report develops new facts regarding the Camilla riot. The report concludes:

"From what I could learn, the colored people and whites were peaceably disposed towards each other. In my investigation of this matter I was materially assisted by Major Howard, and upon my arrival at Camilla, the citizens of that place appeared desirous that the occurrences of the 19th should be investigated. Up to the date of my visit here no action had been taken by the civil authorities of the County nor had any inquest been held over the dead bodies of those killed."

The local elections in Delaware resulted favorably to the Democrats.

Chief Justice Chase goes to Savannah next week, to hear several important cases. His presence there is rendered necessary by the death of Judge Wayne. He will then hold a Court in Raleigh, unless called to Richmond, to hear Mr. Davis' trial. Judge Chase will take no active part in politics, but continues his opposition to Radical excesses, and believes Seymour will administer the Government on Constitutional principles.

FROM NEW YORK—SUDDEN DEATH OF HON. HOWELL COBB OF GEORGIA.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9, P. M.

Hon. Howell Cobb, of Georgia, while conversing in the Vestibule of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, fell dead, at 10 o'clock this morning, without premonitory indisposition—it is supposed of apoplexy.

CONNECTICUT—INCREASED DEMOCRATIC GAINS—A MAJORITY OF THE TOWNS CARRIED BY THE DEMOCRATS.

(Special Dispatch to the N. Y. World.)

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 8.—Returns received here from every town in Connecticut, show that the Democracy have carried a majority of the towns, for the first time in fifteen years. This gives us assurance that the good old State will cast her Electoral vote for Seymour and Blair by a larger majority than that of April last. Our majority in November cannot vary much from 4,000.

FROM ALABAMA—THE LEGISLATURE—REGISTRATION.

MONTGOMERY, Oct. 9, P. M.

Both Houses have adopted resolutions to adjourn to-morrow, to re-assemble on the second day of November, the day preceding the Presidential election.

It is generally understood that registration cannot be completed in time for the election.

No election bill has yet been passed, and the Legislature will probably adjourn without passing one.

EXECUTION OF JOHN PERKENS.

RICHMOND, Oct. 9, P. M.

John Perkens was executed in the jail yard at Portsmouth to-day, for violating Sarah J. Ford. He walked to the scaffold firmly, and, after prayer was finished, he addressed the crowd, saying: He expected in a few minutes to stand before God, and declared, his final statement on earth, that he was innocent and did not know whether Sarah J. Ford was a man or a woman. The drop fell at one o'clock. Perkens died in ten minutes. A detachment of the 29th infantry was present to preserve order. Perkens was from Wakefield, New Hampshire.

ORDER FROM GEN. MEADE.

ATLANTA, Oct. 9, P. M.

Gen. Meade has issued Order No. 37, which distributes the forces under his command to points which he deems necessary, in order to the enforcement of order, &c. He does this (he says) because Congress has, by statute, PROHIBITED the organization of military forces in the several States of this District, &c.

[The telegraphic abstract of this Order is too lengthy for insertion this morning especially as the whole will be immediately published.—Judging from the ob tract, it appears to be, after the clause assigning troops, a calm appeal in behalf of moderation and quiet.—Sentinel.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering); and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration to rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten states, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has subverted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be grateful remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause), in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and manfully defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NEW YORK.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,471.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass the above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taxing all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.
